Truth From the South.

The Brooklyn Tabernacle was filled to overflowing Sunday morning. Dr. Talmage had encouseed a sermon upon what he had seen and heard in an inquiring visit to the Empire State of the South, and when in his introduc-Sun, the East and the West might be brought to feel that they are of one nation, and that God might save the Queen and bless the President, every one felt certain that these invocations were leading up to a discourse on politics. Thea polities became a moral certainty when the paster asked the vast congre gation to join Morgan's great organ and Ali's cornet and the boy choir in giving volume to My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty.

This icspiriog national air baving been sung with all the power that a Brooklyn Tabernacle congregation can give to mus'c when their hearis are in it, Dr. Talmage read his text from Judges, i., 15-"Give me a blessing, for thou hast given me a South land; give me also spring-of water." Caleb's daughter's wedding gitt on her marriage to O.buiel was a farm in the South, but it was land that required irrigation and hence Achsah asked her fatuer to give her also springs. The magnificent South, into which the preacher recently penetrated, also needed irrigation-watering from the springs of God's merey. Dr. Talmage said that he went into the South in an isquiring frame of mind, to see how the people are recovering from the desolations of war. He had a grave in Georgia to visit, the grave of his Uncle Talmage, who was for twenty years the head of Ozlethorpe University. But the pretcher's mission was not with the dead. He went to Georgia with no partisan feeling, for he had no political record to preserve. His admiration for both political parties, democratic and republican, was so small that it would require a Maca ister microscope to see it. The political party steals the most that gets the best charce. Both par ties have malevolently misrepresented the South, and she has been misrepresented by the TUTT'S PILLS press also. Turify the Blood, and Cure The prescher drew a picture of a consequential B stopian strutting in Charleston or in lowing property, to wit: ALLOF THAT LOT Savannah and assuming to be a better man OF GROUND, with the IMPROVEMENTS than the men be met, and taunting the South-Savannah and assuming to be a better man cruers with their defeat in the great war. Such s man would not be likely to return to New England with a favorable impression Southern hespitality. The fact is, Dr. Tal-mage went on to say, if a man behaves well in the South he will be treated well. It is not true that the South desires to re-establish pegen slevery. If you were to go to the ballot box with the question. "Shall negro slavery be re-instated?" the vote would be unanimously "No!" The whole sulject of negro slavery is dead and damped. The owners of the land say that they can work their lands better with free pegroes than with slaves-better with free negroes than with whites, who have to be ac cimated-and the landowners feel that they depend upon the negroes for labor and the ce gross feel their dependence upon their late masters for the pay for their labor. The poli icians who are still agitating the slavery question are talking ornsense, and the talk about dragging lakes and rivers for the corpses of mordered be, roes is all malignant falsehood. My obser various teach me that the treatment of the women oerks and other clerks in the snops of New York and Brooklyn, which is execrable, is more deserving of pub is seesure than the treat ment to which any negro is subjected. This s de of heaven there is no more hospitable poo pla than those of the South. [Applause.] Horses Greeley's salvice to young men to go West should have the addendum. "Go South. Thes: who go first will make fortunes.

Dr. Talmage gave his hearers a brief statistical view of the undeveloped resources of the Eistero, Gut and Southern Adaptic States, and wondered why men will starve in the overrowied cities. Land is within the means of be poorest in the South, the heat is often greater on a sultry summer day in New York than in any part of the South, and the death inte in Goorgia and South Carolina is lower than in New York. Therafore, no caid, "Stop cursing about the South and go down and de valop her wonderful resources. Let ten thousand Northern men go dewo sed marry ten thensend Southern gir s, and let the quarreling of the North and South thereafter be done over ten thousand oradles." Ho branded as a talsehood the assertion that the South doesn't welcome Northerners, and as to the politicians' cycl amaganism to the U.S. he branded that also as a lalsehood. "Palk about fire-esters," he consisted, "if they eat fire they have private tables at which it is careo. They are the most placid, sy mpathetic hospitable peo pie lever saw. The people of the South are royal to-day, and if a foreign foe should try to set its foot on this country by way of intimida then or conquest, I believe that the forces of McClerian and Beauregard. Bragg and Geary, the ex-President and Lee would come shoulder the shoulder, the blue and the gray, and that there would be the gurs from forts tamilton, rickens and Summer joining in one great chorus of thunder and finme. The fact is in this country we have bad a big family fight and it is as it might be if a neighbor should interfere in a quar rel between huzband and wife. The great masses of the people are right. If half a dozen politicians at the North and half a dozen poliicians at the bouth would only consent to die there would be no more actional actionay (appleuse) If they will bury out of sight these new demagagues we will pay all the expenses of cotatalque and epitaph, and of a brass band to play to them the 'rogue's march' FROM TOP TO CELLAR stocked with IM-

BALSAM ever othered to superers from pulmonary diseases.

Dr. J. F. HAYWOOD, of New York, voluntarily inderses it. Read what he says:

New York, Sept. 19, 1877.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a pracsurprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medreine to act as promptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violen fits of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.
